I'm interested in this, but what exactly do the kids get to do. I went to the pheasants forever home page and the fairfield club home page and neither had very much information. It lists the event but not what is all involved in the event. Do you know what the kids get to do, or where I can find that info?

I took my kids to this last year, we had a great time. My son and I will be going again this year. My teenage daughter wont go this year, she would rather go to the mall with her friends than spend time in outdoors with Dad.
I highly recommend this event to anyone with kids!!

This is probably the best youth event in Ohio! The better question is what don't they get to do? I have been taking my kids to this for a few years and hope to make it again this year.
